Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

As reported in the report on Form 8-K filed by Clean Harbors, Inc. (the “Company”) on January 28, 2011, the Company, Clean Harbors Industrial Services Canada, Inc. (“Purchaser”), and Badger Daylighting Ltd. (“Badger”), signed an acquisition agreement dated as of January 26, 2011 (the “Acquisition Agreement”) which provided that, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Acquisition Agreement, the Company would acquire through Purchaser all of the outstanding shares of Badger. Badger is an Alberta corporation headquartered in Calgary, Alberta, that is North America’s largest provider of hydrovac services.

Under the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, a condition to the respective obligations of each of the Company, the Purchaser and Badger to complete the transaction was approval of the transaction by a required affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3 % of Badger’s shareholders and option holders voting on the matter. At a meeting held on April 26, 2011, the Badger shareholders and option holders failed to approve the transaction by such required vote. In accordance with the terms of the Acquisition Agreement, the Company terminated the agreement on April 26, 2011. The Acquisition Agreement provides that if the Company terminates the agreement because of a failure by the Badger shareholders and option holders to approve the transaction by the required vote, Badger will be obligated to reimburse the Company’s out of pocket expenses incurred in connection with the proposed transaction and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the financing thereof, up to a maximum of CDN $1.5 million. The Company is now preparing a demand for reimbursement in accordance with such provision of the agreement.
